Superintendent D. Chris Thompson welcomed all the delegates and visitors.

Rev. Wiley Hughes led the delegation singing two songs.

Assistant Superintendent Rev. Jimmy Whitfield led in prayer.

Superintendent Thompson introduced Bishop James Leggett as the presiding officer.

Bishop Leggett gave a devotional based upon Luke 1:38 and spoke of the subject, "Yes, Yes, Lord".

Bishop Leggett called the business session of the North Carolina Conference to order. He announced the reason for the Session being the discussion and vote on whether to renovate the existing Camp Meeting Auditorium or to build a new facility.

Superintendent Thompson announced the location of the Bar of the Conference to be from the side doors of the Tabernacle forward all the way across the Tabernacle.

Superintendent Thompson presented the options to the Conference with estimated prices of both options. Copies of the floor plan, front and side elevations and plot plan for a proposed building from Jackson Builders Inc. of Goldsboro was made available both in print and from overhead projection.

Several questions were asked and appropriately discussed.

There was a motion from the Board presented by the Conference Superintendent to build a new multipurpose building. The motion was seconded by Rev. Jimmy Whitfield. THE MOTION PASSED.

Superintendent Thompson expressed appreciation to Bishop Leggett for his presence and for presiding.

Conference was adjourned with Rev. T. E. Long leading the delegation in a closing prayer of blessing.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Roland Harrell
Secretary-Treasurer

Superintendent's Report - - 2003

We are on a mission. We cannot fail! Jesus, our Lord, has prayed for us. "As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they may all be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." John 17:18,20,21. The bottom line result of our mission, prayed for by our Lord, is that the world might believe.

Acting as individuals, we cannot win. We must work together. Helen Keller, that great victor over blindness and personal circumstances, gives us these words, "Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much."

We are blessed by our Lord. He has blessed the NC Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church for over one hundred years. He continues to bless and challenge.

We have a great mission. "The North Carolina Conference is a full gospel organism of believers created to glorify God and increase Christ's Kingdom by equipping pastors, and church leaders to be successful at winning the lost, discipling believers, and multiplying believers and churches for ministry in the 21st century." Mission Statement – Adopted April, 2001.

As a group of believers and churches, "we exist to enlist, disciple, train, motivate and deploy all believers (Anglo and Ethnic), clergy (Anglo and Ethnic) for revitalization, soul winning and church planting." Vision Statement – Adopted April, 2001.

Let us Arise and Build for the Lord is with us! He has given the necessary ingredients for success.

The Conference is blessed by committed personnel at the Conference Office – Resource Development Center. These individuals work hard to insure the ministries of the Conference move forward. Rev. Roland Harrell is working beyond the call of duty presently as he directs the Conference campus building projects. Rev. Danny Nelson travels much and works faithfully to plant new churches, revitalize churches, and increase the missions giving. He is very successful in all these areas. Rev. Charles Boyd is constantly on the go as he leads the Church Education Ministries. He is making a difference. Rev. Luis Avila has just joined our executive staff. He will be an excellent addition to our team. These men are gifts of God to the Conference and body of Christ.

In addition to these executives, the Lord has given some very special staff people – Brook Duchene, Kay Glover, Rose Nelson, Dolores Reynolds, Joyce Swinson, and Tommy Vaughan. These people work diligently and freely give of their time and labors. They willingly work beyond necessity to get the job done. They are deeply appreciated. Someone has said, "if you want something done speak to a secretary." I believe there is some merit there.

Along with the full-time office people the Lord has given some very special people who serve as bi-vocational ministry heads. Betty Thompson serves faithfully by my side in ministry. In addition she serves as Minister's Wives Fellowship Director and Archives Director of the Conference. She is a busy lady. She is my best friend and partner in ministry!

Assistant Superintendent, Jimmy Whitfield, serves the Conference well. He is a great friend and personal blessing to me. He is leading well our new School of Ministry. He is making a difference in the new ministers. He and The First Church (Goldsboro) are breaking records in ministry.

Patsy Deese serves Women's Ministry Director. She and her board are continuing to bless the Conference women and make great advances in their chosen areas of ministry. Well Done! She needs to be full-time!

Lydia Figueroa leads a host of intercessors. She is continually training and motivating to prayer. She is our WIN Director. The lady practices what she preaches!

Ronnie Basden and board are making great advances in the Men's Ministry. The foundation is being laid for a great ministry. They have accomplished much. Much is still to be done. Men, get involved in this ministry.

Rev. Bobby Williams and DRUSA team have made a difference during disasters. They serve to be a blessing when people need them the most. May they not be needed often!

Rev. Wiley Clark and board have started several new programs with the superannuated ministers. These faithful warriors of the faith deserve every honor and much respect. They not only have made a difference but are making a difference.

Rev. Luis Avila and the Hispanic Leadership team will be making great advances in reaching the Spanish speaking people of Eastern North Carolina. May the Lord bless them and give us the immediate goal of 50 Hispanic churches. Brother Avila will be moving to Falcon in June, 2004.

I am extremely thankful for all these leaders and their boards and district leaders. So much can be accomplished as all the leaders work together. This includes all the faithful pastors and church boards. We are greatly blessed in this Conference by a great number of God's servants. Our joint goal is not survival, not even success, but significance. We want to make a difference for Christ. The Conference Board is especially supportive to me. They give direction. There is not a "yes" man on the Board. Thank the Lord!

During this next year we have an additional major challenge before us. We must raise a minimum of $750,000.00 for the NEW J. A. Culbreth Auditorium. This can be done! It is the Lord's will that this new multi-purpose building be built. It is needed for the expanded and changing ministries of the 21st Century. We will build it while we honor our past and present warriors of the faith.

Before I chronicle the statistical facts of the Conference, allow me to mention one other area. We have made great advances in finances in the Conference. We have cut the Conference allocation in half (beginning in July). During this time the ministry programs have not been cut. Rather they have been advanced. This is due to the Lord's blessings and the faithfulness of ministers and churches alike. We have a way to go before we reach the goal of a Biblical tithe from the churches, but we are well down the road.

Personal Statistics

2003 was a very busy but prosperous year for me. I grew is the Lord. Souls were saved. I preached and taught some 207 times. Some 38,366 miles were driven in ministry for the Lord and the NC Conference. There were five new churches organized. I met with 36 church boards and led 34 churches in business meetings of various sorts. 21 pastors were assigned. The Conference Board met 15 times. I attended 5 General Executive Board Meetings and 2 General Board of Administration Meetings. It is my prayer and desire that I represented the Conference well. Betty and I conducted 24 district MPM (mission, prayer, and ministry) meetings. 26 District Conferences were conducted. There were 6 meetings attended in connection with the Falcon Children's Home. There were 2 Emmanuel College and 2 Holmes Bible College Trustee meetings attended. And so the list goes on. It was a busy year, but very profitable for me. I am humbled and honored to be the Superintendent of this great Conference. I ask your prayers and continued support as we move forward in His name.

Look now and view with me some of the Conference stats for year 2003.

COMMITTEE ON APPRECIATION REPORT
Ninety-Third Annual Session
North Carolina Conference
May 31, 2003

In "the Message", Eugene Peterson paraphrases Daniel 12:3 as follows: "Men and women, who have lived wisely and well, will shine brilliantly like the cloudless, star-strewn night skies. And those who put others on the right path to life will glow like stars forever:

Society has chosen to call those persons who are popular performers in the arts, Stars. Some of these persons have their names inscribed along with a star in a special sidewalk in Holly wood California.

But the real Stars, the real heroes, are those whom God calls Stars. They are men and women who have accepted the call of God to dedicate their lives to the business of winning souls to Jesus Christ. To "put others on the right path to life". "To turn many to righteousness". And God says He has already made an eternal declaration that will be honored time without end, that preachers of righteousness "will shine like the brightness of the firmament,….as the stars forever and ever."

Today we will celebrate and honor some of God's Stars. People who have tirelessly labored to expand the Kingdom of God by winning souls to Jesus Christ. By Evangelizing and Pastoring in the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

REUBEN VANCE BATCHELOR

Rev. Reuben Batchelor was born on July 6, 1940. Reuben grew up in Nash County, North Carolina. He attended school at Cooper's School in the Sandy Cross community near Nashville, North Carolina. Rev. Batchelor also attended Holmes Bible College in the early 1970's.

On October 7, 1961 Reuben married Carrie Marie Davenport. They have two children Kimberly Marie Eatmon and Jonathan Vance Batchelor. They have one grandson, Patrick Lee Eatmon.

Reuben was saved on April 14, 1954 at the age of 13. His home church was the Thompson's Chapel PH Church. He later transferred his membership to the Taylor's Chapel PH Church were he has kept his nominal membership all the years of his Pastoral Ministry.

Rev. Batchelor received Mission Worker's License on November 10, 1961, Local Minister's License on August 9, 1963 and was ordained on August 8, 1965. Bro. Reuben preached for about five years before he applied for Conference credentials. He was called to preach at the age of 16. All his Pastoral ministry has been fulfilled in the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

The Batchelor's have served in the pastoral role at five (5) churches. Taylor's Chapel, August 1963-August 1970. Beaufort (Maranatha), July 1971-August 1972. Vaughn's Chapel, February 1973-April 1976. Alert, April 1976-July 1979. Taylor's Chapel, August 1979-August 2002.

Rev. Reuben Batchelor served as pastor of the Taylor's Chapel Church for a total of 30 years. This is one of the longest terms at one church of service in this Conference.

Bro. Batchelor gives all the glory and praise to God for the successes and blessings that have come his way in Pastoral Ministry. Every church he pastored grew in membership and was blessed with spiritual growth that could only be explained as a move of the Spirit of God.

While pastoring Taylor's Chapel the second time he led the church in the building of the new sanctuary. This facility is one of the most beautiful and commodious in our Conference.

During hurricane Floyd the Batchelor's lost their home to the flood waters that devastated the area. God has led them through complete restoration from this great loss and continues to bless them in their retirement.

Reuben and Marie, this Conference extends deep appreciation to you for your faithful service and loyalty. We bless you in Jesus Name and wish for you God's best in the years He will give you to continue to serve Him in the field of His choosing.

Reuben Superannuation will be effective August 1, 2003. He will retire with 40 years of full tine service.

Bro. Turner received Mission Worker's License with the North Carolina Conference on February 12, 1963, Local Minister's License on August 7, 1964 and was ordained on August 12, 1966. He has worked hard to apply himself and has studied to "show himself approved unto God". His diligence has made him an effective Gospel minister.

Rev. Turner pastored the Friendship Church from February 1964 until August 1966. He went to Black Creek and served as Pastor for the next 6 years, then to Lamms Grove for 2 years. He served as Pastor at Taylor's Chapel for 1 year.

In addition to his Pastoral role Bro. Turner was deeply involved in the Royal Ranger program.

Emmett says God gave him a good faithful ministry. He is grateful for the opportunity to have touched lives and won many souls. He is still preaching and appreciates every opportunity given him to preach revivals, homecomings, and to supply and fill pulpits for area pastors.

Emmett's Superannuation was effective October 1, 2002 with 38 years of full time service.

Emmett Turner this Conference appreciates your dedication and diligence in ministry service. We salute you for all the energies expended and all the time given to the many churches God placed you in to serve.

THE MEMOIRS REPORT
MAY 31, 2003

In Rick Warren's Book "The Purpose Driven Life" he lists life's five greatest questions.

1) What will be the center of my life?
2) What will be the character of my life?
3) What will be the contribution of my life?
4) What will be the communication of my life?
5) What will be the community of my life?

These people, we are about to memorialize, have answered these important questions in a way that highly honors our Lord.

MRS. ETHEL BAILEY, October 29, 1920-October 10, 2002

Rev. Mrs. Ethel Bailey was born in Johnston County on October 29, 1920, to Wilson and Lillie Roberts Glover. She was one of ten children. She married Roland Wilton Bailey in 1937: four children were born to this union. Two of their children, Roland Randolf Bailey and Wilton Junior Bailey, preceded their mother in death. Larry Wayne Bailey presently resides in Pikeville, NC. Her daughter, Betty Faye Schutte, lives with her husband Carroll in Greensboro, NC.

On October 10, 2002 while a patient in Wayne Memorial Hospital Betty Ethel Glover Bailey died but now lives on in the eternity that she told so many others about.

Rev. Mrs. Bailey came to know the Lord in a cottage prayer meeting in 1929. She received her Mission Worker's License on June 14, 1955 and was licensed to preach on June 6, 1958. Both these credentials were earned in the Western N. C. Conference of the IPHC, now called the Cornerstone Conference.

SHELLEY KATRI MCDONALD, July 6, 1980 – May 15, 2003

In August, 2002 Shelley McDonald met with the NC Conference Board. It was a delightful interview. Shelly was a rising senior at Emmanuel College. She was approved for License and became the youngest member of the N. C. Conference. On May 15, 2003, Ms McDonald was killed in a tragic car wreck.

Here was a lady that loved the Lord. She was a leader in worshiping and winning souls to the Master. She was constantly seeking new avenues of worship and ways that she could win others to the Lord.

Shelley was a member of the 2003 graduating class of Emmanuel College. She had begun work at her local church for the summer—the Whiteville Pentecostal Holiness Church. It was not to be.

While at Emmanuel Shelley won the Distinguished Preacher Award for 2002. She also was very active in the S.O.S. Soul-Winning Society. Those who knew her speak of her creative ways to serve the Lord and her ever-increasing zeal for Him!

The celebration service for Shelley's promotion was held at the Whiteville Church on Monday, May 19th. What a celebration it was! The church was filled to capacity. Her pastor, Dr. Lyndon D. Purifoy, led the service. Representatives were present from Emmanuel College and the NC Conference. All who were present were drawn into the presence of the Lord.

Shelley will be missed, but she is not lost. We know where she is. May the Lord bless her memory to our lives. May the model of her life be an example to all of His goodness and blessings.

WILLIAM ROY NORRIS, February 11, 1931 – May 14, 2003

Brother Roy Norris was born February 11, 1931 and was born again in 1951 at the Saint Delight Pentecostal Freewill Baptist Church in Angier, N. C. The same year he married the love of his life, Christine. She would remain faithfully by his side until his promotion. In the last few years she would face many hardships as she sacrificed to make him more comfortable in his battle with Parkinson's disease and diabetes.

Rev. Norris was a simple but powerful man who loved the Lord and accepted the call to preach. He received the Mission Work's License to preach in 1963 and joined the NC Conference in 1964.

After receiving license he immediately was assigned a church. He pastored the following churches:

Vick's Chapel	1964-1966
Carson Memorial	1966-1968
Sims	1970-1971
Sims	1985-1992

For a period of time Brother Norris transferred to the Pentecostal Freewill Baptist Church. During that time he evangelized and pastored the Bible Fellowship Church in Reidsville, (1971-1973).

William Roy Norris loved the Lord and the church. He was faithful. He served the church as Sunday School Teacher, Sunday School Superintendent, deacon, preacher and pastor. In all the opportunities of ministry he did his best and obeyed the Lord. In the latter years he was unable to serve the Lord in public ministry, but his love for the Lord never diminished. During those years he faithfully supported his pastor and attended church when possible. He has always been faithful in his reporting to the NC Conference.

Pastor Norris is survived by his wife Christine and four children—Douglas, Dexter, Durwood and Darlene. There were nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

A memorial service was held at the Bryon-Lee Funeral Home, on Saturday, May 17th at 2:00 PM. Interment was in the Red Hill Church Cemetery, Coats. Thank the Lord for men like William Roy Norris.

Sister Pollard was such a quite and unassuming lady. Her love for the Lord was deep and her commitment strong. She was one special lady in Christ. On December 10, 2002, she and her husband, Rev. Johnie Pollard would have been married 59 years.

This lady faithfully served beside her husband in the ministry. Together they ministered and worked in the following churches.

SARAH JUANITA REARDON THOMPSON, April 20, 1925 – February 11, 2003.

A celebration service was held for Juanita Reardon Thompson on February 14, 2003 at Shumate-Faulk Funeral Home in Goldsboro, NC. She was the beloved wife of Rev. Johnnie Hubert Thompson. Rev. Thompson was a faithful pastor in the NC Conference.

Juanita Reardon and J. Hubert Thompson were married on December 29, 1943. They were the parents of three children – Patricia Ann Mozingo, Ruth Blizzard and James Nelson Thompson. She had 6 grandchildren and 2 great grand children. Patricia Ann had already preceded her mother to heaven.

She love the Lord fervently and especially enjoyed singing the Gospel. Her joys were her family and faithfully assisting her husband in the work of the Lord. She also loved gardening.

She was diagnosed with a brain tumor in 1984, which was successfully removed. Through occupational therapy, physical therapy and speech therapy she regained skills to live independently. Due to declining health, she moved in with her daughter, Ruth, in 1998. She stepped over to heaven on February 11, 2003 at 4:25 P.M. She leaves a legacy of a life well lived to those who loved and cared for her.

REVEREND ROY ORMOND WILLIAMS, September 11, 1917 – March 7, 2003

Rev. Roy Williams was born on September 11, 1917 to Johnnie and Nannie Williams. He was a gift to the body of Christ and the NC Conference. He married Kathleen Hardee on June 18, 1938. He was first licensed to preach in the Pentecostal Church of Christ in 1945. He was ordained with this group in 1947 in Ashland, Kentucky. His first pastorate was Colington Island, Kill Devil Hills, NC. He preached and ministered in several churches in the Virginia Beach area.

Brother Williams was ordained by the NC Conference on August 16, 1950. He would ultimately pastor five of the Conference Churches. These were:

Hodges Chapel	1951-1954
Washington	1954-1958
Grimesland	1958-1966
Shelmerdine (now Family Life Tabernacle)	1966-1982

He was an excellent pastor and well loved by his parishioners and the men and women of the Greenville area. For some 58 years he was a preacher of the Gospel. He ministered diligently and faithfully. He was never in the forefront. He ministered in the shadows, but minister he did. He was solid, stable and sure. He was significant; He made a difference.

Pastor Williams retired in 1981. Until his health failed he continued to faithfully preach the Word at every opportunity. During his years of fervent ministry he owned and operated Williams Construction Company (heavy equipment).

Roy Williams is survived by his wife and faithful companion Kathleen H. Williams, five sons: Ormond E. Williams and wife Peggy, Rev. Roy Lindsay Williams and wife Barbara, Rev. Bobby Williams and wife Anne, James W. Williams and wife Tamara and Terry L. Williams and wife Carolyn. There are 13 grandchildren and 9 great grand children.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2003 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Fifty-ninth Annual Convention on Saturday, June 7, 2003 at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle at Falcon, North Carolina. The convention theme was "Touch Through Me".

Registration began at 8:30 a.m. in the Training Center with Mrs. Marjorie Teachey as Registrar and the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors assisting. The Minister's Wives Fellowship, directed by Mrs. Betty Thompson, hosted refreshments. Music prelude began at 9:20 a.m. by Linda Faircloth, Organist and Dwayne Williams, Pianist.

Assistant Director, Janice Marshburn, gave the welcome and invocation. She then read Isaiah 6:8. The Mount Carmel Praise Team led us in several worship choruses, including "Come On and Praise the Lord" and "Blessed Be the Name of the Lord". Mrs. Kay Steedly was our Worship Leader. North Carolina Conference Superintendent, Rev. D. Chris Thompson, extended greetings and welcomed everyone to Falcon.

NCWM Director Patsy C. Deese welcomed everyone to the Convention, including a special welcome to all former Conference Presidents/Directors. Former Presidents/Directors present included Mrs. Dollie Davenport, Mrs. Sue Parker, Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson and Mrs. Linda M. Thomas.

Director Deese explained that the special emphasis for the Convention was to give recognition to the local Secretary-Treasurers. She reminded us of all the work that these women do (and often without any appreciation). All local secretaries that were present were asked to come to the front and receive a pin to show our appreciation for all their hard work.

After explaining that Conference Superintendent Thompson would have to leave early and needed to be present for the Business Session, Director Deese introduced General Women's Ministries board member, Mrs. Beulah Sturkie as the Presiding Officer for this Convention.

Mrs. Sturkie called the business session to order.

A motion was presented by NCWM Secretary, Marjorie Teachey, that convention members reconsider the Finance Committee Report adopted at the 2002 Convention. NCWM Assistant Director, Janice Marshburn, made a second to the motion. The motion was accepted.

A second motion was made by Mrs. Teachey to delete items 1 & 2 under section IV, Letter A of the Finance Committee Report and replace it with the following: "The NCWM Board will set the salaries of the Conference WM Director and the Conference WM Secretary-Treasurer. These salaries will be reviewed annually. That the NCWM Board in consultation with the Conference Superintendent work at finding a way to make the NCWM Directorship a full-time position". Mrs. Lois Trueblood seconded the motion. Conference Superintendent Thompson spoke in favor of the motion. He explained that in order to bring about the Resolution Committee's recommendation to make the NCWM Directorship full-time, this portion of the Finance Committee Report would have to be revised. He also shared that the Conference began in February supplementing the Director's salary. He stated that the "work" is full-time and the salary should be also. Mrs. Teachey noted that it is very unusual for a "body" to set the salaries the board usually sets salaries.

No one spoke in opposition to the question. The motion passed.

Mrs. Sturkie then called for any new business. There was none. The business session was adjourned.

Special music was presented by NCWM Board Member, Terry Boyette, who sang, "Touch Through Me".

Director Deese presented General Board Member, Mrs. Beulah Sturkie as our guest speaker. Mrs. Sturkie blessed and encouraged us as she spoke on "God Has a Plan for Your Life". She referred to many scriptures including Jeremiah 29:11, "I know the plans I have for you declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." She referred to her own life and how God had miraculously brought her into the plan that He had. God uses the "Insignificant things" to bring about His purpose!

Director Patsy Deese presented gifts of appreciation to Rev. Blanche Pollard Happy Hearts Coordinator, Mrs. Cathy Ward and Mrs. Cathy Arthur Couples Retreat Directors, NCWM District Directors, Mrs. Dollie Davenport Past Presidents/Directors Club Director, Girl's Ministers Leadership Team Members, Dorothy Boyette NCWM Historian and NCWM Board Members, Janice, Marjorie, Terry and Lois.

Marjorie Teachey addressed the Convention with words of appreciation for all the cooperation received and the monies raised for Falcon Children's Home and ATAM. She also thanked Rev. T. E. Long and Rev. Marvin Whitfield for helping with her portfolio, which is Benevolence.

Cathy Ward and Cathy Arthur then spoke to the ladies about the annual Couples Retreat. This year it will be in September in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

As part of her portfolio on Education, Lois Trueblood presented a video about Emmanuel College. Mrs. Beulah Sturkie, who works at Emmanuel brought greetings from the school and shared with us the good things that are happening at Emmanuel College.

Feast of Ingathering Scholarship awards were presented. Recipients were Nicholas A. Davenport, Melissa M. Dunning, Summer N. Green, Danielle N. Harris, Victoria Kesling, Brittany Lucas, Victoria R. Smith, Roxanne R. Thompson and Travis Ward.

North Carolina Girl's Ministries Director, Mrs. Bobbie McNeese reported that Girl's Ministries are growing. Approximately 300 girls and sponsors attended the retreat held in Falcon on Saturday May 17, 2003. We praise God for His blessings.

Happy Hearts Director, Rev. Blanche Pollard reported that Happy Hearts are still meeting twice a year for "fun, food and fellowship". She also reported that they have expanded their Christmas Stocking Program to include Agape Christian Fellowship, a Pentecostal Holiness Church in the inner city of Pittsburgh, PA. Rev. Cecil Barry is the Pastor.

As part of her Mission portfolio, Terry Boyette stated that she has enjoyed her job very much and has learned a lot. She has attended several "missions" meetings and she shared that besides other missions giving, the NCWM has given $12,212.95 to Christmas Missions.

Rev. Janice Marshburn reported that "Sharing Sisters" is an exciting program. She encouraged those churches that do not participate to call her and become involved. Intercession is also included in her portfolio. She spoke to us about the power of prayer and how there are so many ways that we can be involved. Miracles are made manifest through prayer.

NCWM Director Patsy Deese gave her, "State of North Carolina Women's Ministries" report. She stated that she views her ministry as that described in Ephesians 4:11-13. Her desire is to be a "servant leader". She reported that this first year, as Director has been "awesome". She thanks God for His strength, grace and goodness that have enabled her to fulfill her duties.

"Mrs. Patsy" expressed her appreciation to the NC Conference Superintendent, Conference Board Members and the RDC staff. She also expressed her thanks to her local church, Maranatha and her Pastor, Rev. Richard Robinson. Last but not least she expressed her appreciation to her husband, Henry, who knows "how to seal envelopes" and has encouraged her in ministry.

NCWM Secretary-Treasurer, Marjorie Teachey assisted Director Deese in presenting plaques and bars to the local Women's Ministries groups earning awards for the year 2002. Special recognition was given to Bizzell Grove, Greenville First and Moore's Chapel for receiving a score of 100 on the annual evaluation for sixteen consecutive years and to Wallace and Grace Family Fellowship for 100 points for twelve consecutive years. A first time special plaque was presented to the Mount Olive Women's Ministries in Mt. Olive, NC for their contribution to Falcon Children's Home of $28,547.50 in turkeys, commodities and cash at Harvest Train 2002.

Mrs. Dollie Davenport read the Memoirs Report. She then invited Linda M. Thomas to come and lead in prayer.

The Convention came to a close as Director Deese once again spoke words of appreciation to all for their continued support and prayers.

Rev. Janice Marshburn led the ladies in the Women's Ministries song.

Hill and Marjorie Teachey gave the beautiful floral arrangement in memory of her mother, Mrs. Rossie M. Price who was a charter member of the Wallace Women's Ministries.

Respectfully submitted,

Marjorie Teachey
NCWM Secretary-Treasurer

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
2002-2003 REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

"It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ."
Eph. 4:11-13

I view my ministry as the North Carolina Women's Ministry Director as described in this scripture. It is to help prepare you for works of service. This for me can be accomplished best as a servant leader. As a servant I understand that I am but a part of the body of Christ, a fellow pilgrim, willing to work along side others rather than appearing aloof or distant. As a leader I understand that I, like all other Christians, am gifted and I am responsible for using my gifts in ways to encourage the growth of the body.

The past twelve months have been awesome. This has been a very busy year and I have endeavored to serve you to the best of my ability. I am honored to represent you at the General Conference Director's Council meeting in Oklahoma City in September. I have traveled approximately 7,425 miles across the North Carolina Conference promoting Women's Ministries. You have allowed me to be a part of your W. M. Day observances, Sharing Sister programs and your local meetings. I have held workshops and training sessions, planned and executed a Leadership Seminar, the NCWM Retreat, local Director's Council, District Director's training and participated in district rallies.

Our 2003 WM theme, Reaching People- "Every Life Impacting Another…" has been exemplified as you have ministered to others through your gifts in reaching around the world in support of our missions programs. Your contributions to Feast of Ingathering, including matching funds, were $84,420.96. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern College, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College.

You gave $12,212.95 toward Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts. Additionally, you supported other mission's projects in the amount of $4,464.00.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of $195,775.58 in cash and commodities from North Carolina Conference through the WM Supported Harvest Train. You gave $6,433.21 to the Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM).

Girl's Ministries continues to grow under the leadership of BOBBIE NCNEESE and her leadership team, NANCY ROBERSON, MARY CLARK and MEDIA LEE. These young women are doing a great job and we are proud to have them serve the North Carolina Conference. The Missionettes program is a vital tool in ministering to our girls. If your WM is not sponsoring a Girl's Ministries group, I challenge you to begin. We must be committed to touch the lives of every girl within our reach.

Happy Hearts are going strong, Under the leadership of BLANCHE POLLARD and assisted by MARJORIE TEACHEY & MARGARET POTTER, there ladies are doing an excellent job in planning the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. This is evident in the excitement at each meeting and the growth that continues to take place. Thank you for your dedication to our senior adults.

A special thank you to our Couples Retreat Directors, CATHY WARD & CATHY ARTHUR. Again this year, they and their husbands, did a wonderful job providing another great retreat. This retreat was held in Myrtle Beach with the Rev. Stan Kennedy. Everything was wonderful! The 2003 Retreat scheduled for September in Gatlinburg is already planned and you don't want to miss it. Cathy & Cathy, thank you for all your hard work and dedication to this time of marriage enrichment for our couples.

The Past President Club chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT is a wonderful support group. Dollie along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON AND LINDA M. THOMAS are women that love the Lord and are eager to lend their support. I truly admire each of them and appreciate their encouragement and their prayers. Thank you for being a blessing!

NCWM Board Members have been my right arm, my left arm, my support, my shoulders to cry on, my friends and my prayer partners. JANICE, MARJORIE, LOIS and TERRY have committed themselves to serve you any way they can. This has been evident in the long board meetings and planning sessions. They have willingly given themselves to serve the North Carolina Conference. Each one has their own individual unique gifts but collectively God put us together to use our gifts to build His Kingdom. I believe we are a great team. Words cannot express how much I appreciate each of you. Thank you for all you are doing.

NCWM District Directors are a blessing from the Lord. These ladies form the greatest network for reaching the local church that I have ever experienced. They want to serve the women of this conference. They are available to visit the local church. They are busy serving as registrars and helpers at Conference functions. They promote Women's Ministries on the local level by organizing rallies, leadership meetings and keeping in contact with local directors. A special thank you to JACKIE JONES, KATHY DUSZYNSKI, JOANN BLACKMON, YVONNE JONES TERRI HODGE, GALE TAYLOR, ANNE WILLIS, CAROL DAVIS, ROSE HUBBARD, JACKIE THOMPSON and DARNELL NELMS.

Special thanks to our NCWM Historian, DOROTHY BOYETTE, for keeping the camera ready. She is doing a great job keeping the official records of the events of the North Carolina Women's Ministries. If you have not seen our scrapbooks, you should take a few minutes to visit these pages of history. Dorothy, we appreciate all your hard work and dedication.

I would like to say thank you to the RDC personnel and the NC Conference Board. They have made me feel so welcome and a part of the team. I appreciate their continual support and hard work.

NC Conference Superintendent CHRIS THOMPSON has been very supportive to the Women's Ministries and me. He is an encourager and has been very willing to meet with the WM Board to discuss the future of Women's Ministries. I appreciate his prayers and his vision for us. His wife, BETTY, serves as our First Lady and Minister's Wives Fellowship Conference Director. She has such a humble spirit and is willing to help us in any way she can. We are fortunate to have this couple leading the North Carolina Conference.

To my home church, Maranatha, thank you for your love and support. As local WM Director, choir member and Church Secretary/Treasurer when I'm away on WM business, there has been someone willing to fill the gap. For their prayers and support of this ministry, special thanks to my pastor, Richard Robinson and his wife, Joan. God has blessed me with a wonderful church family and I miss them when I'm not there and I know someone is praying for me.

Last but not least, I must say thank you to my husband, Henry. He has been so helpful and encouraging. He has found a quick way to seal envelopes. He has gotten to know a lot of you on the telephone. Without his love and support, I couldn't do all that I am trying to do. The Lord has blessed me with a wonderful helpmate and I appreciate him more than words can say.

To each of you may I say thank you for all you do on the local level. Women's Ministries would not be what it is today without you. You are the tool that God is using to meet the needs in your local church and community. Please know that I am here to serve you and I believe that "Together We Can" build the body of Christ.

In His love,

Patsy C. Deese
